BAAAAANNNNNNNNAAAAAANNNNNNAAAAA

Chapter 6 by Monorilakkuma

I was always born as banana and I'm proud of it.

Chapter 7 by Guy Rudin

focus a young banana stares into the distance contemplating the terrible peeling of his father three days earlier, he cries yellow tears, gets down on his knees and yells "I will avenge you father!"

Chapter 8 by Danielle Pollack

"I will never let you go!!" the young banana sobbed. His reluctance to accept the death of his father took an unexpected turn. He soon started hoarding everything that came across his path. Whatever he touched was thought to be of value. He was never going to take anything for granted ever again! Nothing. Nothing! Shall be wasted. His small but charming, bachelor boot of a home was soon overthrown. Trash, clothes and all else of the sort was bulging through the lace ceilings. With so much stuff he was losing track of himself. He almost had forgotten where he had placed his father's carcass!

He then remembered, "AH! the freezer!" He thought, "what better way to reincarnate his father's stoic, buff body than to put him in the food processor and make some vegan banana icecream!
